

Dr Marzieh Shiva was born in 1961 in Tehran. She obtained her medical degree in 1988 from Tehran University of Medical Science and received her obstetrics and gynecology specialty in 1993 from Mashhad University of Medical Science. She passed theological education in Alzahra theological seminary in Qom. She has been member of Endocrinology and Female Infertility Department, Royan Institute since 2006. Her fields of interest are: ART complications, recurrent abortion, Uterus anomalies, Prenatal care in complicated pregnancy. She has collaborated with many research projects. She has many national & international publications and presentations in different fields related to infertility. She has been author or co-author in more than 70 national and international articles, abstracts, books and chapter books.